

LGBTQ LEADERS

in Higher Education

Institutional Membership

LGBTQ Leaders in Higher Education advances effective leadership in post-secondary education, supports professional development of LGBTQ leaders, and provides education and advocacy regarding LGBTQ issues in the academic sector.

Any institution of higher education, or higher education related organization, may become a member of LGBTQ Leaders in Higher Education. Institutional members are notified of programs of LGBTQ Leaders in Higher Education and receive other news of the organization. Institutions are encouraged to choose the level of membership that makes sense to them. Institutional memberships will designate which individual(s) receive the benefits of membership.
